THEATRE CLASSES starting September 14, 2010

Classes will meet for 10 weeks with October 5 off and ending on November 9

Teacher: Heather Bitterling

Bitterling received her BFA in Theatre from Western Kentucky University. She has done directing for the Fountain Square Players, Western Kentucky University Children's Series, Franklin Simpson Arts Council and more. She has experience teaching art camps for the Capitol Arts Center, Butler County Arts, Bowling Green Community Education Programs, ActSmart, and the Hendersonville Arts Council Summer programs.

The classes will cover everything from A to Z that it takes to put on a show. All classes will culminate in a performance and will focus on improving acting skills at each student's own level, building confidence, speaking skills, and a knowledge of the elements of theatre.

Fairy Tales Ages 5 - 6 4 - 4:45 p.m.

Children will explore the basics of acting while having fun with fairytales!

Classic Children's Literature Ages 7 - 9 5 - 6 p.m.

Using stories from classic literature, students will learn the elements of theatre, stage presence, and gain confidence in themselves.

Pure Comedy Ages 10 - 12 6:15 - 7:15 p.m.

Serious, fun in the world of theatre, including a study of comedic timing and improvisation. Students will study acting techniques, ensemble and performance.
